NOTICE.

THE owner of this collection has been engaged in collecting coins for several years, and has paid particular attention to the condition, as well as rarity of the various specimens.

EDWARD COGAN and W. H. STROBRIDGE have examined the condition of the American silver and copper, also the English and French coins, and their opinions in the main agree as to condition.

I should prefer that parties intending to purchase should be present and examine the condition of the various pieces for themselves, inasmuch as it is impossible always to give a description that is understood by all.

Owing to haste in the preparation of the Catalogue, some errors may have crept in, but collectors may rely upon the general accuracy of the descriptions. Immediately after the Sale, a limited number of Priced Catalogues will be issued. Orders for the same will be filled by E. COGAN, Esq., Philadelphia, or W. H. STROBRIDGE, Esq., 93 William Street, New-York, or myself.

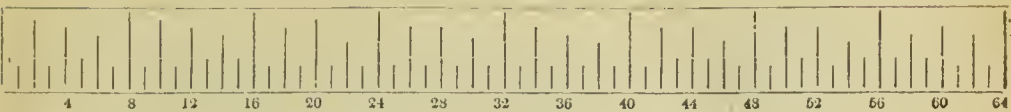

Orders for Catalogues upon large paper must be sent before the close of the Sale. Price of the large size, $1.50; and of the smaller, $1. Any information concerning the collection will be furnished by addressing
